

Confidence

E. B. Barnes

Homer A. Rodeheaver, 1911

1. Walk Thou with me, nor let my foot-steps stray A - part from Thee, thro'-
2. Thro' wea - ry years my way hath mi - ry been; My bit - ter tears Thy
3. No earth - ly foe can give my spir - it fear; No threat'n-ing woe can

- out life's threat'n - ing way; Be Thou my Guide, the pity - ing eye hath seen; My faint - ing heart hath quail when Thou art near; No tempt - er's snare can path I can-not see; Close to Thy side, Lord, let me walk with Thee.

heard Thy voice di-vine; My trem-bling hand asks but to rest in Thine.
turn my steps a-side; For in Thy care, I'm safe what - e'er be - tide.

Chorus

Dear Sav-ior, let me trust my hand in Thine, And let me know Thy steps are guid - ing mine; Life's chang - ing way is rall.

oft-times dark to me, I fear no ill if I may walk with Thee.

