

Face the Light

Carlton C. Buck (1907–1999)

B. D. Ackley (1872–1958)

1. There's a place where all the shad - ows turn to sun - shine, There's a
2. There's a place where bur - dened hearts are freed from sad - ness, There's a 3. There's a way to keep the shad - ows all be - hind you, There's a place where all the mid - nights turn to day; 'Tis the place where sin - sick souls are freed from shame; 'Tis the way to keep the sun - shine all be - fore; Keep the place where heav - en's light meets the black - ness of the night; At the place where heav'n a - bove bathes the world in match - less love, 'Tis the shad - ows out of sight; with your face set t'ward the light, You will cross of Christ the shad-ows flee a - way. place where pil-grims bow in Je-sus' name. Face the light, and you will see no know His joy and peace for - ev - er - more.

Chorus

shad - ow, Face the light in con - fi - dence each day; Keep the cross in sight, 'Twill dis - pel the night, And the shad-ows all will quick-ly flee a - way.