

O Lord, I Come to Thee

Annie Wright Marston (1852–1937)

John Stainer (1840–1901)

1. O Lord, I come to Thee, Thou know-est all my state; My
2. Thou know - est all my sin; How I, Thy ran-somed one, Have
3. Lord, Thou canst work in me The will to do Thy will; And
4. In ut - ter lack of strength In - to Thine arms I fall; For
5. Thine ev - er - last-ing arms Will nev - er let me go; The
6. Lord, Thou wilt take me now; I trust my - self to Thee, That

1. heart is long-ing so for rest, No long - er can I wait.
2. gone the way my heart de-sired, And left Thy will un-done.
3. Thou canst work in me to work, Thy pleas-ure to ful - fil.
4. if Thou dost not hold me up, I can - not stand at all.
5. arms of Him who faint-eth not Can nev - er wea - ry grow.
6. as Thy will is done in heav - en It may be done in